the Assumption Campus. People who met her ever, never forgets her smiling face, simplicity, practical and optimistic attitude to life and ardent faith in God. Sr. Mary lived a life that is unparallel for its humaneness, kindness and generosity. Her love and concern to the poor and the little ones were very special. As the Head of the Institution she gave utmost importance to honesty and justice.
Her strong sense of duty and discipline has been a shining example to her colleagues. The shore never forgets the sea even if it recedes, so too the memories of Sr. Mary.*
